

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: SEPTEMBER 22, 2008*K2's Johnston Named "Top 100 Most Influential People in Accounting"

Hammond, LA – September 22, 2008 – Randy Johnston, Executive Vice President of K2 Enterprises, has been named one of "The 2008 Top 100 Most Influential People in Accounting" by Accounting Today, a leading accounting industry publication. Johnston was also named to the list in 2004, 2005, 2006, and 2007. Other members of the list include Scott Cook, Founder and Executive Committee Chair of Intuit, Kevin Robert, CEO of Wolters Kluwer Tax and Accounting, David Cieslak, Principal – Arxis Technology, and Henry Paulson Jr., U.S. Secretary of the Treasury.

"Johnston's technology recommendations and prognostications influence firms' tech plans and vendors' development strategies across the country," stated Accounting Today.

Johnston teaches Continuing Professional Education (CPE) nationwide and consults with CPA firms, banks and private businesses, as well as technology and accounting-industry vendors concerning ways to improve their organizations and lives using technology. Johnston is Executive Vice President of K2 Enterprises, an education firm providing technology seminars and conferences for CPAs. His partners in K2, Will Fleenor, Val Steed and Tommy Stephens, have also been instrumental in the success of K2 along with Johnston. He is also Executive Vice President of Network Management Group, Inc. Johnston and his NMGI partner, Steve Harper, live in Hutchinson, Kansas and have been in business since 1983.

About K2 Enterprises (K2)

K2 Enterprises is a national provider of CPE, in-house training and consulting in the accounting and technology industries. Founded in 1988, K2 is headquartered in Hammond, LA. Additional information about K2 can be found at www.k2e.com or by calling (985) 542-9390.

Contact: Cheryl Perret

K2 Enterprises

985-542-9390

cheryl@k2e.com